

SA- 890

GUNBARREL TAVERN - Early 1800s - 11011 Reisterstown Road. Neighborhood traditions of long standing report that this red, frame, three-story clapboard house, 16 x 36 feet, was a turnpike tavern where the less elegant guests were served outside; their drinks were poured into public mugs through an old gunbarrel. Now the Cohen residence.